Bike & Hike in the Burgundy wine region active travel

If eating and drinking your way around France appeals to everything but your waist-line, this five-day/four night active tour, offered once every month, delivers an opportunity to work off those delicious calories through the breathtaking Burgundy wine region.

The wines of Burgundy will have no longer any secrets as you indulge yourself in tasting the best Pinot Noir and Chardonnay varieties based wines in the world!

A warm welcome awaits you at the hand picked French chic Bed & Breakfast located in the historic center of Beaune.

Awaken your tastebuds with croissants, gougères 'local cheese puff', boeuf bourguignon, fromages and other local delicacies.

Ride your bike through the quiet breathtaking Grand Cru vineyards of Montrachet and Chambertin and optionally challenge yourself going over the hills to explore the back country.

Experience up and close at your own peace the Burgundy wine capital Beaune and its treasure Les Hospices.
